

Iwona Wróbel: Realization of Transport Plan Provisions within 2014/2015 Train Timetable

The transport plan of rail interregional and international rail services on the first place in the circle of its stakeholders mentions passengers being a basic group of transport services consumers, for which the responsibility holds the Minister in charge of transport.

The Plan states that the functioning of interregional and international rail services is directed on fulfilling of consumers' needs. In order to meet their requirements there were presented expansion options of services co-financed by the Minister and demonstrated transport services standards and methods of organization of passengers information system. The article contains evaluation of fulfilling the Transport Plan provisions level in the 2014/2015 timetable by international and interregional services providers on the basis of agreements with the minister in charge of transport in a scope of: actually completed option of the Minister's offer development, coherence of completed Minister's option with the rules of its construction and achieving by the completed option parameters of services standards and methods of organization of information system.

Keywords: transport plan, public collective transport, international services, interregional services, trains timetable