

Paweł Winciorek: Tests and Approval of Freight Wagon GRANT01A Type to Operate on a Railway Siding

The article contains the description of the scope of tests, measurements and technical documentation analyses concerning freight wagon GRANT01A type. This wagon is intended to be used on a specially adapted railway siding and it was checked for technical and operational parameters compliance with the Regulation of the Minister of Infrastructure and Development of 13 May 2014 (Journal of Laws 2014 item 720) on placing into service of particular constructions, equipment and railway vehicles.

Keywords: railway transport, tests, freight wagon