

Iwona Wróbel: The National Plan of TSI PRM Implementation

The article contains main aims of the National Plan of the TSI Implementation referring to EU railway system accessibility for disabled persons and with reduced mobility (PRM), drawn up on behalf of the Ministry of Infrastructure and Development, including the subject matter of particular components of the document which assumes two stages. The paper also presents main directions of required activities in the area of passenger railway infrastructure and rolling stock used for passenger transport, which aim at implementing TSI PRM, along with the timetable of their implementation.

Keywords: national implementation plan, technical specifications for interoperability, Persons with Reduced Mobility Subsystem